

1C HOW TO ... start and end a conversation; keep a conversation going

Situations

Student A

Situation 1: On the bus

It's Monday morning. You're on the bus to university when another student from your class gets on and recognises you.

Situation 2: At the train station

You are waiting at a train station. You would like to know if there is wifi. Start a conversation with the person sitting next to you.

Situation 3: In the work kitchen

You started a new job today. You are sitting in the kitchen at lunch time. A colleague you haven't been introduced to yet comes in and starts a conversation with you.

Situation 4: In the lift

It's the end of the week and you've just finished work. As you are leaving the office, you get in a lift with your colleague. Start a conversation.

Student B

Situation 1: On the bus

It's Monday morning. You're getting on the bus to university and see a student you know from class. Ask if the seat next to them is free and start a conversation.

Situation 2: At the train station

You are waiting at a train station. You are using wifi on your phone. The person next to you starts a conversation.

Situation 3: In the work kitchen

You go to the kitchen at your work. There is a new colleague there you don't know. Introduce yourself and find out how long they have been working here. Start a conversation.

Situation 4: In the lift

It's the end of the week and you've just finished work. As you are leaving the office, your colleague gets in the lift with you.
