Hi, Ben!

Wednesday, April 20th

What a busy time – so many sports! 1 It's Wednesday today / yesterday, and at 2 o'clock I'm doing weightlifting. 2 Yesterday / Last week I played basketball, and 3 last month / last weekend, I played soccer with my friends.

4 Last month / Last week, on Friday I played tennis with my brother, but he won!

Do you remember 5 last month / last year when we went rowing together on the river? It was great! And I even did some sports on my vacation 6 last year / last week – I learned to dive. It was a lot of fun.

Bye for now,
Harry.

Hi, I'm Hannah. Last week, it was our school Sports Day. I ran the 200-meter race. I didn't win, but I came in second. Then, I ran the 400-meter race, and I won! My dad was surprised. In the afternoon, we had the athletics. I didn't throw the javelin, but I threw the discus ... I wasn't very good. After that, I was in the high jump and the long jump. In the high jump, I came in first and I won a medal! Finally, there was a race for parents. My dad ran in the race, but he fell down after six meters!

Audioscript (to be read by the teacher)

Here is the sports program for this week.

On Monday, we go to the pool for the diving competition.

You can see the strong men in the weightlifting finals on Tuesday.

On Wednesday, you can watch the rowing competition with four teams trying to win this year.

On Thursday evening, you can see the boxing – the fight of the champions.

On Friday, we go over to the wrestling competition – Jimmy Dare is the favorite to win.

And finally, on Saturday the athletics. Throwing the javelin is the first event.
