Happy birthday to my colleague Deborah! Here we are at work – all the team! It's Deborah's 40th birthday today. She's the one with the cake and the big smile. She's very happy because it's her special day. That's our manager next to her with the glasses and the gray tie. His name's Paul. The other man with glasses and the striped tie is our colleague Dan. That's me with the curly hair. Birthdays are great, but now it's back to work.

Hi Roberto,

How are you? I'm fine. I have a new job! I'm a postman now.

I get up at six o'clock in the morning, have breakfast and walk to work. I don't have a car. It's nice to work in the summer months. I finish work at one or two o'clock in the afternoon. It's not a long day. I go home and have lunch. And my wife, Gretel? She's at work in the afternoon, so I read a book or watch TV.

In the evening, we have dinner at seven o'clock. I talk to my brother or my parents on the phone. We go to bed at nine or ten o'clock.

What about you? What's your routine?

Dev

P.S. Here's a photo of me doing my new job.

WRITING PRACTICE

Model answer

Hi Carlo,

How are you? I'm fine. It's Sunday, so I don't have any work. You ask what I do on my free days? Well, on Sundays, I get up late, at nine o'clock or nine thirty, and have coffee and make breakfast. I read the newspaper or watch the news on TV. Our son and daughter come for lunch at two o'clock and after lunch, we all go for a walk. In the evening, we play games and eat at home or go out to a restaurant. I go to bed at 9:30 because I get up for work at six o'clock on Monday.

What about you? What's your Sunday like?

WRITING PRACTICE

B

Model answer

A good café is quiet with good, cheap food and drink and free wi-fi. Amy's Café isn't like that. I don't like it because there are always a lot of people talking and you can't hear because of the music. The chairs aren't comfortable and the color of the walls is horrible! The hot chocolate and the coffee are OK, but they're very expensive. You sometimes wait an hour for a snack or some soup because it's always very busy. There's free wi-fi, but it never works, so you can't check your emails and messages.

Last Saturday, it was nice and sunny, so I went for a walk on the beach. After half an hour, I decided to go back home. Then I saw something in the water. It was a necklace and it looked very expensive. I wasn't sure what to do with it. Then I decided to put an ad in the local newspaper. 'Found. One beautiful necklace. At Golden Beach.' The next day, a man came to my house and said it was his wife's necklace. He was very happy to get it back. Later that day, we all went to a nice restaurant to celebrate.

Hi Jorje,

I'm taking a quick trip to Paris for three days.

The hotel is very nice. It's rainy here right now, so I got a new umbrella (I didn't bring one).

There are lots of museums and art galleries to visit. I tried to visit the Louvre yesterday, but it was very busy and there were long lines, so I went for a walk around the city.

Near the River Seine, there are lots of people selling books, so I got some interesting history books. You know I love reading about history.

I came yesterday, so tomorrow is my last day. What a shame!

See you when I get back!
