

LCCI Writing

You work for EurAm Foods, a large multinational supermarket chain, whose main markets are in Europe and North America. You have been asked to write an article for the company blog about the new opportunities for office-based staff. Here are some notes from a recent HR meeting:

- webinar training for staff in different locations
- language training to be offered
- company office staff exchanges – three months working in another country; conditions: minimum length of service – three years
- staff competition to design new uniform

Write the article. Write 250–300 words.
