- 3 Hey Ben,
 You asked about visiting Folkestone soon ... well, September is definitely the best time to visit. It's quieter ~~that~~ than in August but the weather is still really good. There are lots of beaches here. Sunny Sands is the most popular with families but it's also the ~~busier~~ busiest. Mermaid Beach is quieter than Sunny Sands but it's got stones, not sand. Sandgate beach is similar ~~than~~ to Mermaid beach but it's further from the town centre. You should definitely swim in the sea – the water is the ~~warmer~~ warmest in September.
 I think the ~~most good~~ best place to stay in Folkestone is the campsite. It has the ~~more~~ most beautiful views over the English Channel. It's also ~~cheap~~ cheaper to stay there than in a hotel.

There are two train stations in the town. Central Station is ~~more close~~ closer to the campsite. I think the quickest way to get around town is by electric bike – they're ~~best~~ better than normal bikes!
