

The First Fleet Word and Definition

Match for Crimes

Cut out the boxes below and match each word to its definition.

Abuse

Arson

Assault

Theft

Robbery

Murder

Deception

Bigamy

Coining

Embezzlement

Felony

Fraud

Wounding

Larceny

Treason

Mutiny

Forgery

Perjury

Pickpocketing

Poaching

Rioting

Sacrilege

Shoplifting

Smuggling

Vagrancy

The deliberate burning of another person's house or property.

To mislead by a false appearance or statement.

A sudden, violent attack.

The killing of another human being.

To counterfeit (make false money).

To take something from someone by unlawful force or threat or violence.

To deceive in order to gain some unfair or dishonest advantage.

To rebel against authority.

A noisy, violent public disorder caused by a group or crowd of people.

Financial fraud where one may steal money or assets that were entrusted to another.

The wrongful taking and carrying away of the personal goods or property of another.

The crime of marrying while one has a husband or wife still living, from whom no divorce has been effected.

The illegal practice of trespassing on another's property to hunt or steal game without the landowner's permission.

Stealing money or wallets from the pockets of people in crowded public places.

To treat in a harmful or offensive way.

The violation or profanation of anything sacred or held sacred.

To steal merchandise from shops.

To injure or to hurt.

To import or export goods secretly.

To wander around idly and have no permanent home or employment.

An offence. Any crime punishable by death or mutilation and forfeiture of lands and goods.

The betrayal of a trust or confidence to one's government, sovereign or state.

The crimes of falsely making or altering a writing by which the legal rights of another person are affected.

The wrongful taking and carrying away of the personal goods of another from his or her possession.

The wilful giving of false testimony under oath or affirmation, before a competent tribunal.

Answers

1. Abuse: To treat in a harmful or offensive way.
2. Arson: The deliberate burning of another person's house or property.
3. Assault: A sudden, violent attack.
4. Theft: The wrongful taking and carrying away of the personal goods or property of another.
5. Robbery: To take something from someone by unlawful force or threat or violence.
6. Murder: The killing of another human being.
7. Deception: To mislead by a false appearance or statement.
8. Bigamy: The crime of marrying while one has a husband or wife still living, from whom no divorce has been effected.
9. Coining: To counterfeit (make false money).
10. Embezzlement: Financial fraud where one may steal money or assets that were entrusted to another.
11. Felony: An offence. Any crime punishable by death or mutilation and forfeiture of lands and goods.
12. Fraud: To receive in order to gain some unfair or dishonest advantage.
13. Larceny: The wrongful taking and carrying away of the personal goods of another from his or her possession.
14. Treason: The betrayal of a trust or confidence to one's government, sovereign or state.
15. Mutiny: To rebel against authority.
16. Forgery: The crimes of falsely making or altering a writing by which the legal rights of another person are affected.
17. Perjury: The wilful giving of false testimony under oath or affirmation, before a competent tribunal.
18. Pickpocketing: Stealing money or wallets from the pockets of people in crowded public places.
19. Poaching: The illegal practice of trespassing on another's property to hunt or steal game without the landowner's permission.
20. Rioting: A noisy, violent public disorder caused by a group or crowd of people.

Answers

21. Sacrilege: The violation or profanation of anything sacred or held sacred.
22. Shoplifting: To steal merchandise from shops.
23. Smuggling: To import or export goods secretly.
24. Vagrancy: To wander around idly and have no permanent home or employment.
25. Wounding: To injure or to hurt.