Jay, Gail and May like to play at Green Bay park. They like to get there at midday and stay and play for the afternoon. Jay and Gail say that the main part of the park is fun but May likes to play with her crayons and stay under the trees. From the park, she can see the sailing boats in Green Bay.

One Thursday, they are at the park and it starts to rain. "Will we get wet?" says Gail.

"No. Come under the tree with me," says May but Jay will not go under the tree. He picks up a plastic tray and puts it up like an umbrella. The rain fills up the tray. Jay cannot see. He trips and the rain spills on him. He is wet and looks like he has been in the bay.
