

All About Summer

Summer is one of the four seasons; it is the season that comes after spring. Summer begins in June and finishes in August.

What happens to the animals?

Many lovely birds visit England during the summer, such as ospreys. Ospreys are good at fishing and they plunge into water feet first.

Beautiful butterflies can be seen flitting around gardens in the sunshine. If you visit the beach or go out to sea in the summer, you might be able to spot seals or basking sharks.

What foods are in season in summer?

During summer lots of fruit and vegetables are available easily. So many are in season in the summer for example strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes.

What is celebrated in summer?

Schools and universities usually have a summer holiday, which is the longest break from school. It is usually around six weeks long.

It is often the season where we have the hottest weather. Many people enjoy spending more time outside during the summer. You might choose to take part in some fun activities and do things like visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis.

All About Summer Questions

1. In which month does summer begin?

2. In which month does summer end?

3. What is an osprey?

4. What are ospreys amazing at?

5. What can be seen flying around gardens in the sunshine in summer?

6. Write the name of two foods that are in season in summer.

7. Which holiday is in summer?

8. How long is the holiday?

9. Name 2 activities you could take part in during the summer.

All About Summer Answers

1. In which month does summer begin?

Summer begins in June.

2. In which month does summer end?

Summer ends in August.

3. What is an osprey?

An osprey is a bird of prey.

4. What are ospreys amazing at?

Ospreys are amazing at fishing.

5. What can be seen flying around gardens in the sunshine in summer?

Butterflies can be seen flitting around the gardens in the sunshine.

6. Write the name of two foods that are in season in summer.

Accept any two: Strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes are in season in summer.

7. Which holiday is in summer?

The summer holiday from school happens in summer.

8. How long is the holiday?

Summer holidays are usually around six weeks long.

9. Name two activities you could take part in during the summer.

Accept any two: You could visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis.

All About Summer

Summer is one of the four seasons; it is the season that comes after spring. In summer, the days are the longest and nights are the shortest. It is also the hottest season. Summer begins in June and finishes in August.

What happens to the animals?

Many lovely birds visit England during the summer, such as ospreys. Ospreys are birds of prey that can typically be found near the sea and freshwater. They are amazing fishers and they plunge into water feet first.

Beautiful butterflies can be seen flitting around gardens in the sunshine.

If you visit the beach or go out to sea in the summer, you might be able to spot seals or basking sharks. If you carefully search a rockpool, you may be able to find small fish such as goby, butterfly, blenny or pipefish.

What foods are in season in summer?

During the summer lots of fruit and vegetables are available locally, which is great and helps support farmers. So many are in season in the summer, for example strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes.

What is celebrated in summer?

Schools and universities usually have a summer holiday, which is the longest break from school. It is usually around six weeks long.

Because it is often the season where we have the hottest weather, many people enjoy spending more time outside during the summer. You might choose to take part in some fun activities and do things like visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis. Games was held in 1896 and the event occurs every four years. The first Summer Olympic Games was held in 1896 and the event occurs every four years.

All About Summer Questions

1. What are the days like in summer?

2. When does summer begin and end?

3. What is an osprey?

4. What are ospreys amazing at?

5. What can be seen flitting around gardens in the sunshine in summer?

6. List three foods that are in season in summer.

7. How long is the summer holiday?

8. Name three activities you could take part in during the summer?

9. Which sporting event is usually held in the summer?

All About Summer Answers

1. What are the days like in summer?

The days in summer are the longest.

2. When does summer begin and end?

Summer begins in June and ends in August.

3. What is an osprey?

An osprey is a bird of prey.

4. What are ospreys amazing at?

Ospreys are amazing at fishing.

5. What can be seen flitting around gardens in the sunshine in summer?

Butterflies can be seen flitting around the gardens in the sunshine.

6. List three foods that are in season in summer.

Accept any three: Strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes are in season in summer.

7. How long is the summer holiday?

Summer holidays are usually around six weeks long.

8. Name three activities you could take part in during the summer?

Accept any three: You could visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis.

9. Which sporting event is usually held in the summer?

The Summer Olympic Games are usually held in the summer.

All About Summer

Summer is one of the four seasons; it is the season that comes after spring. In summer, the days are the longest and nights are the shortest. It is also the hottest season. Summer begins in June and finishes in August.

What happens to the animals?

Many lovely birds visit England during the summer, such as ospreys. Ospreys are birds of prey that can typically be found near the sea and freshwater. They are amazing fishers and they plunge into water feet first to catch fish.

Beautiful butterflies can be seen flitting around gardens in the sunshine. They go through a four-stage life cycle: egg, caterpillar, pupa and winged adult.

If you visit the beach or go out to sea in the summer, you might be able to spot seals or basking sharks. If you carefully search a rockpool, you may be able to find small fish such as goby, butterfly, blenny or pipefish.

What foods are in season in summer?

During the summer lots of fruit and vegetables are available locally, which is great and helps support farmers. So many are in season in the summer, for example strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes.

What is celebrated in summer?

Schools and universities usually have a summer holiday, which is the longest break from school. It is usually around 6 weeks long. Because it is often the season where we have the hottest weather, many people enjoy spending more time outside during the summer. You might choose to take part in some fun activities and do things like visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis.

All About Summer

There are also water sports available including swimming, water skiing, surfing, body boarding and wake boarding.

The Summer Olympic Games are usually held in August. The first Summer Olympic Games was held in 1896 and the event occurs every four years. This is an international multi-sport event where over 10,000 competitors represent many different countries and compete to win gold, silver and bronze medals.

All About Summer Questions

1. What are the days and nights like in this season?

2. What can butterflies be seen doing in summer and where?

3. What is an osprey?

4. What are ospreys good at and how do they do it?

5. List five goods that are in season in summer?

6. Name two activities and three water sports you could take part in during the summer.

7. Which sporting event is usually held in the summer?

8. When was this event first held and how often does it occur?

9. What type of event is it?

All About Summer Questions

10. Who takes part and what do they win?

All About Summer Answers

1. What are the days and nights like in this season?

The days in summer are the longest and the nights are the shortest.

2. What can butterflies be seen doing in summer and where?

Butterflies can be seen flitting around the gardens in the sunshine.

3. What is an osprey?

An osprey is a bird of prey.

4. What are ospreys good at and how do they do it?

Ospreys are amazing at fishing and they plunge into water feet first to catch fish.

5. List five goods that are in season in summer?

Strawberries, peaches, apricots, runner beans and tomatoes are in season in summer.

6. Name two activities and three water sports you could take part in during the summer.

Any two: Visit the beach, have a picnic or barbecue and play football, golf or tennis. Do some swimming, water skiing, surfing, body boarding and wake boarding.

7. Which sporting event is usually held in the summer?

The Summer Olympic Games are usually held in the summer.

8. When was this event first held and how often does it occur?

The first Summer Olympic Games was held in 1896 and it occurs every four years.

9. What type of event is it?

This is an international multi-sport event.

10. Who takes part and what do they win?

10 000 competitors represent many different countries and compete to win gold, silver and bronze medals.