

Shopping Day

It was Sunday and Fran was feeling bored. Her friends were all busy and she had nothing to do.

‘I know, let’s go shopping.’ suggested Mum.

‘Okay.’ agreed Fran.

Mum and Fran got ready and walked to the bus stop.

At the bus stop they thought about the things they could buy.

‘Let’s buy ice cream!’ suggested Fran.

‘And school shoes,’ added Mum.

When Fran and Mum arrived in town they went to the shoe shop first. Fran picked out some shiny green shoes.

‘I think you need black school shoes,’ said Mum.

Fran looked around at all the shoes and with Mum’s help they found the perfect pair! Shiny, sparkly black school shoes!

Next they went in the dress shop. Mum and Fran looked at all the colourful dresses. Mum bought a pink dress and Fran bought a green dress.

After the dress shop, they decided to go for ice cream. They walked to a cafe and read the menu.

Fran went to the counter to order two chocolate ice creams. Fran felt proud because she ordered the ice creams by herself.

The last shop of the day was the bakery. Mum and Fran chose some bread and cakes to take home with them.

‘Can we go shopping again next weekend?’ asked Fran on the bus home.

‘Yes, let’s go shopping next Saturday.’ Mum answered happily.
