

Personal and Possessive Pronouns

A pronoun is a word used in place of a noun.
example: Juan read a story. He enjoyed the story.

Directions: Read the following sentences and choose the personal pronoun that makes sense for the underlined word.

Personal Pronouns

he

she

it

we

they

1. Amaya got a gift. she
2. The gift was for her birthday. _____
3. Alejandro bought the gift. _____
4. Vera and Mateo found a box. _____
5. Sonia and I are going to the party. _____
6. Elizabeth and Liam will wear hats. _____
7. Zoey likes soda. _____
8. The party will end soon. _____

A possessive pronoun shows who or what owns something.
example: The dog is mine. This book is yours. The cat is hers.

Directions: Circle the possessive pronoun that completes each sentence.

1. Uma lent me (her, hers) sweater.
2. I hope I don't forget which one is (mine, my).
3. Both of (our, ours) bikes are exactly the same!
4. (Your, Yours) dog's ears are pointed.
5. Look at the cat! (It, Its) tail is stubby.