Should Pupils Wear School Uniforms?

Uniforms are worn during the week by many children across the world. While some people are in favour of having them, other people believe that they are not needed. This argument will look in detail at the reasons for and against the use of school uniforms.

One of the main arguments for pupils wearing a school uniform is that all children will look similar. Many people view this as a positive thing because it stops pupils from feeling uncomfortable if their clothes are not as expensive or fashionable as their friends'. Furthermore, some parents argue that having a school uniform makes life easier for them because they know exactly what their child will be wearing each day. Ultimately, this saves time for busy parents and stops arguments about the suitability of certain clothing for school. It is a fact that some adults have to wear a uniform for their job, such as police officers, nurses or paramedics. For that reason, many people believe it is a good idea for children to get used to wearing a uniform from an early age.

On the other hand, some people argue that making children wear a uniform could prevent them from showing their personality. In addition, school uniforms can be expensive if they have to be bought from a certain shop. This could mean that some parents would not be able to afford a new uniform. Some school uniforms can also be uncomfortable if the material used is itchy or woolly. It could be argued that this would cause children to lose concentration in class.

After considering the arguments on both sides, I believe that school uniforms should be worn by pupils to create a sense of school community. In my opinion, I think that children should have some choice over the style of their uniform so that they can give their opinions about what would be most comfortable for them to wear during their school day.
