

Grammar: Comparatives and Superlatives

When we compare something to something else, we use a comparative. These often end in -er.

e.g. She is faster than her sister.

When we want to say that something is the most or the best, we use a superlative. These often end in -est.

e.g. She is the fastest in her class.

Can you find the comparative and superlative for these words?

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
fast
bright
slow
angry
grey

Not all comparatives and superlatives follow the -er and -est rule. Here are some common exceptions. Can you find the comparatives and superlatives?

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
bad
good
far

Grammar: Comparatives and Superlatives - Answers

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
fast	faster	fastest
bright	brighter	brightest
slow	slower	slowest
angry	angrier	angriest
grey	greyer	greyest

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
bad	worse	worst
good	better	best
far	further	furthest