

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

You saw your friends one week ago. Then, you went on holiday for a week. Today, you came home and saw your friends again. Some things are different... what's changed?

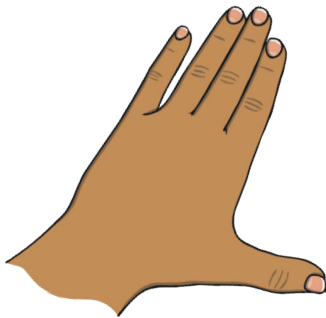

Last week, Lauren...

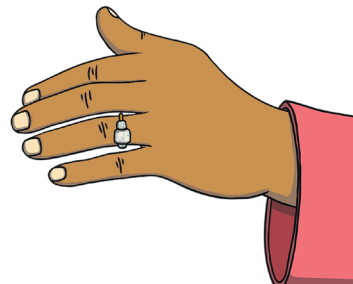

Today, Lauren...

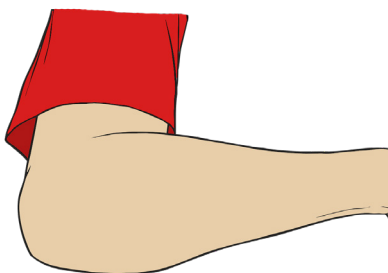

Last week, Tina...

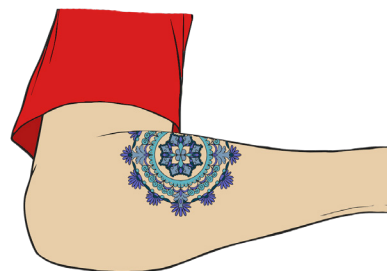

Today, Tina...

Last week, Arlo...

Today, Arlo...

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

Last week, Ben...

Today, Ben...

Last week, Isha...

Today, Isha...

Last week, Holly...

Today, Holly...

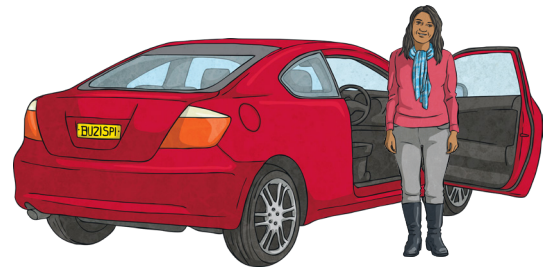

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

Last week, Riya...

Today, Riya...

Last week, Olivia...

Today, Olivia...

Last week, Faye...

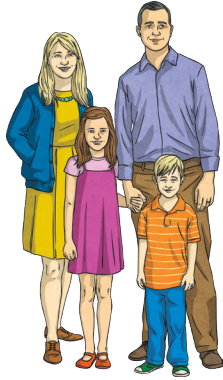

Today, Faye...

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

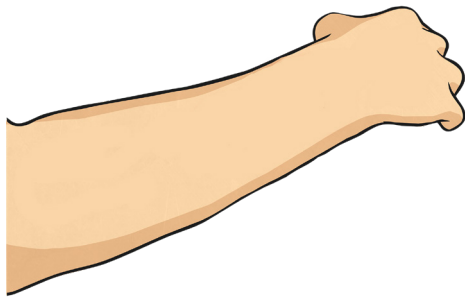

Last week, the Cooper family...

Today, the Cooper family...

Last week, Amy...

Today, Amy...

Last week, Rachel and Adam...

Today, Rachel and Adam...

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

Last week...

Today...

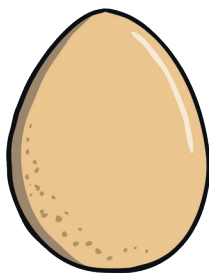

Last week...

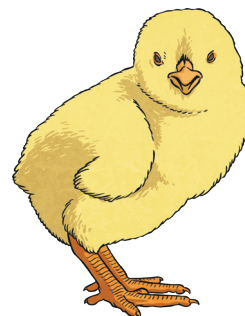

Today...

Last week...

Today...

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

She's had a haircut.

Who's had a haircut?

He's got a tattoo.

Who's got a tattoo?

She's had a baby.

Who's had a baby?

She's bought a car.

Who's bought a car?

She's broken her leg.

Who's broken their leg?

They've moved house.

Who's moved house?

They've adopted a puppy.

Who's adopted a puppy?

What's Your News? Present Perfect Matching Cards

She's graduated from university.

Who's graduated from university?

She's got engaged.

Who's got engaged?

The chick has hatched.

What's hatched?

The caterpillar has changed into a butterfly.

What has the caterpillar changed into?

She's started a business.

Who's started a business?

It's died!

What's died?

Teacher Note

To reinforce understanding of the use of the present perfect, concept-check students' understanding by asking when these events happened. Students should be able to identify that they happened 'sometime this week', 'before now' or similar.