

Gradable and Non-gradable Adjectives Worksheet

Match the gradable adjective with the extreme/non-gradable adjective

- | | |
|---------------|---------------|
| Funny • | • Tiny |
| Cold • | • Hilarious |
| Hungry • | • Terrified |
| Interesting • | • Fascinating |
| Small • | • Ancient |
| Old • | • Starving |
| Afraid • | • Freezing |

Replace the gradable adjective with a non-gradable/extreme adjective from the list below

Soaked	Huge	Freezing	Awful	Gorgeous
Exhausted	Filthy	Fantastic	Boiling	Furious

- The weather was absolutely cold today.
The weather was absolutely _____ today.
- After hiking, we were completely tired.
After hiking, we were completely _____.
- My sister stole my t-shirt and I was completely angry.
My sister stole my t-shirt and I was completely _____.
- The food at that restaurant was absolutely bad, I will never go there again.
The food at that restaurant was absolutely _____, I will never go there again.

5. Her singing was absolutely good, I hope she wins.

Her singing was absolutely _____, I hope she wins.

6. The dog was completely dirty after his walk.

The dog was completely _____ after his walk.

7. His house is absolutely big.

His house is absolutely _____.

8. We played football in the rain and got absolutely wet.

We played football in the rain and got absolutely _____.

9. Take some water if you go outside, it's absolutely hot.

Take some water if you go outside, it's absolutely _____.

10. She looked absolutely pretty on her wedding day.

She looked absolutely _____ on her wedding day.

Circle the correct adjective for each sentence

11. I thought that movie was (completely/very) fantastic.

12. My friend is (very/absolutely) good at tennis.

13. I am (really/absolutely) certain that I want to be a doctor.

14. He looks (very/completely) exhausted.

15. My little brother is (very/absolutely) clever.

16. The exam was (a little/completely) impossible.

17. She said the play was (absolutely/very) fantastic!

18. The weather looks (absolutely/really) cold today.

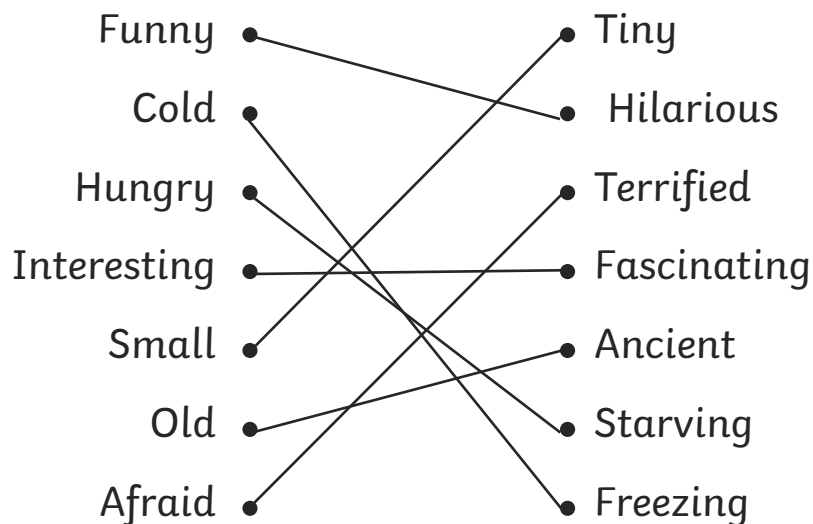

19. He looks (very/completely) handsome today.

20. Your baby is (really/completely) adorable.

Gradable and Non-gradable Adjectives Worksheet Answers

Match the gradable adjective with the extreme/non-gradable adjective

Replace the gradable adjective with a non-gradable/extreme adjective from the list below

Soaked	Huge	Freezing	Awful	Gorgeous
Exhausted	Filthy	Fantastic	Boiling	Furious

1. The weather was absolutely freezing today.
2. After hiking, we were completely exhausted.
3. My sister stole my t-shirt and I was completely furious.
4. The food at that restaurant was absolutely awful, I will never go there again.
5. Her singing was absolutely fantastic, I hope she wins.

6. The dog was completely filthy after his walk.
7. His house is absolutely huge.
8. We played football in the rain and got absolutely soaked.
9. Take some water if you go outside, it's absolutely boiling.
10. She looked absolutely gorgeous on her wedding day.

Circle the correct adjective for each sentence

11. I thought that movie was (completely/very) fantastic.
12. My friend is (very/absolutely) good at tennis.
13. I am (really/absolutely) certain that I want to be a doctor.
14. He looks (very/completely) exhausted.
15. My little brother is (very/absolutely) clever.
16. The exam was (a little/completely) impossible.
17. She said the play was (absolutely/very) fantastic!
18. The weather looks (absolutely/really) cold today.
19. He looks (very/completely) handsome today.
20. Your baby is (really/completely) adorable.