

If...

Each person takes it in turns to ask an 'If...' question.
E.g. If you could be one article of clothing, what would you be?

Everybody else answers. Embrace the conversations which arise from these!

You can have great fun thinking up your own questions for this game, but here are some examples to get you started. You can cut them out and draw them randomly from a bowl, or choose which you are going to ask.

If you could have lived during one period of history, when and where would it be?

If you could only eat one food for the rest of your life, what would it be?

If you could be invisible for a day, what would you do?

If you could have any skill without having to learn it, what would you want to be able to do?

If you could do one year of your life over again, which would you choose?

If you could give your 10-year-old self some advice, what would it be?

If you had 1 million pounds, what would you do with it?

If you could only listen to one song / artist forever, what / who would it be?

If you had to lose one of your senses, which would you choose to give up?

If you could meet one person (alive or from history), who would it be?

If you had to go and live in another country, where would you go?

If you could turn into an animal, which animal would you want to be?
